

FREE!

Summer Film Series on HIV/AIDS

Sweating in DC for your summer internship? Working 'til the wee hours of the night on social justice causes? Looking for a break on Thursday evenings to meet other activists and policy wonks, and learn a thing or two about a pressing international issue? Join Africa Action and the Student Global AIDS Campaign for a FREE summer film series!

6.29

Pills Profits Protest • 6:30-9 pm

Speakers: Healy Thompson, CHANGE
Marie Clarke Brill, Africa Action
Location: The International Student House: 1825 R Street NW
(Red Line - Dupont Circle)

7.06

Coming to Say Goodbye • 6:30-9 pm

Speakers: Folabi Olagbaju, Amnesty International
Marsha Coleman Adebayo, International AIDS Network
Location: Center of Concern: 1225 Otis Street NE
(Red Line - Brookland)

7.27

The Value of Life: AIDS in Africa • 6:30-9 pm

Speakers: Ann Louise Colgan, Africa Action
Jacqueline Howard Mathews, United Negro College Fund
Location: Institute for Policy Studies: 1112 16th Street NW, Suite 600
(Red Line - Farragut North)

8.10

A Closer Walk • 6:30-9 pm

Speakers: Mwiza Munthali, TransAfrica Forum
Diana Duarte, Africa Action
Location: Trans Africa Forum: 1629 K Street NW, Suite 1100
(Red Line - Farragut North)

8.24

Tumaini Letu - Our Hope • 6:30-9 pm

Speakers: Asheber Gebru, Ethiopian Community Development Council
Sarah Dastur, Academy for Educational Development (AED)
Natalie Halpern, AED, Filmmaker
Location: Religious Action Center for Reform Judaism:
2027 Massachusetts Ave. NW (Red Line - Farragut North)

Africa Action
www.africaaction.org

Student Global AIDS Campaign
www.fightglobalaids.org

For more information: call 202-546-7961 or email mobilize@africaaction.org

Cosponsors

Center of Concern
Institute for Policy Studies
The International Student House
Religious Action Center for Reform Judaism
TransAfrica Forum